

Open Door will host award winning children's book author
Susanna Leonard Hill
as part of their Reach Out and Read Program's Author Series
Wednesday, February 22, 2012 at 10:30 am

Open Door Family Medical Centers' Reach Out and Read Program, presents its first Author Reading Event of the year! Children ages 2-5 and their families are invited to join children's author, Susanna Leonard Hill and a surprise guest for a free story time at Open Door's Ossining location at 165 Main Street on Wednesday, February 22nd at 10:30am. The Merritt Bookstore and the Scarborough Church have generously donated copies of Ms. Hill's books for the event. The first 30 children who attend will receive a new Susanna Leonard Hill book to take home. All children attending will receive a goodie bag that will include a book, a healthy snack, and more!

Susanna Leonard Hill will share a few of her stories, including, 'Can't Sleep Without Sheep' with the children of Ossining. Ms. Hill has worked for many years teaching dyslexic students, but stopped after her third child was born. Now she spends her time being a mom, writing, and visiting schools, and our Health Center, whenever she gets the opportunity.

For more information, please contact Jenny Palacio at (914) 502-1358, jpalacio@ood.org or Charlotte Baughman at (914) 502-1355, cbaughman@ood.org.

