

Family Medicine Residency Faculty Physician

The NYMC Phelps Family Medicine Residency Program is an exceptional partnership of New York Medical College, Phelps Memorial Hospital Center and Open Door Family Medical Centers. Accredited by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education, the program is an innovative, forward-thinking 3-year residency in family medicine. The NYMC Phelps Family Medicine Residency Program was the first accredited Family Medicine residency program in New York State to be established since 1995 with a mission to help address the great shortage of primary care, and particularly, family physicians. This extraordinary partnership of New York Medical College, Phelps and Open Door has integrated many of the most forward-thinking insights and clinical advances into the core curriculum.
